Glamour & Style in the CBD

New Orleans Living held its very own Holiday Fashion Show, "Glamour and Style" on December 8 at Republic. Models strutted their stuff in duds provided by Per Me, C. Collection, Tomato and Azby's. Make Me Up did the wonderful makeup featuring sultry, smoky eyes and luscious lips. The night was kicked off with Level Vodka drink specials and patrons danced into the wee hours of the morning to mixes of hip-hop by DJ Kemistry. A special thanks to Jeremy Johnson for helping us put it all together. A good time was definitely had by all.
