

FACES & PLACES

Tyler Douglas and Nick Nevares

Ashish Verma, Grace Bauer, John Cummings, Leah Bauer, Rebecca Snedeker and Mac Bauer

Malcolm Petal and Robert Le Blanc

65 Roses at Republic

The annual 65 Roses event benefiting the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation was held at Republic July 8. Guests were treated to the ultimate VIP treatment as Robert Le Blanc and his staff rolled out the red carpet for all to be photographed by the "paparazzi." Carl Mack Productions provided wonderful entertainment with crowd-stunning acrobats and performers. Those in attendance included WDSU's "it" couple Travers Mackel and Helena Moreno, as well as documentary filmmaker Rebecca Snedeker and Windsor Court GM Ashish Verma. But the real star of the evening was 3-year-old GraceRose Bauer, who has cystic fibrosis. She out-danced everyone as New Orleans-based rockers The Vettes and The Hush and Los Angeles-based Dynamite Brothers played a mix of pop, punk and hip-hop.

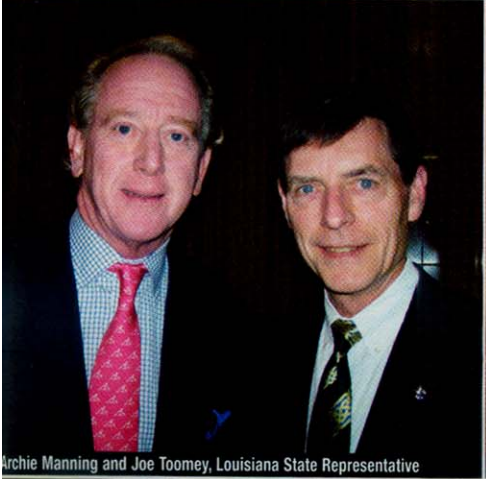

Carl Mack and 'Mistress of the White Rose'

GraceRose Bauer and Leah Bauer

Jennifer Reifert and Ashley Mills from CF Foundation

Archie Manning and Joe Toomey, Louisiana State Representative

Archie Manning

Ashton J. Ryan, Jr., President and CEO of First NBC Bank

Mrs. Gasper Schiro, Gasper Schiro and Jane Matte